Keepsake Chronicle

What is the perfect gift? Most people would agree the perfect gift is something that can be cherished for a lifetime. When you or your loved ones create a Keepsake Chronicle, you will have created the perfect gift for your family. The Keepsake Chronicle is a life story, told by the person who has lived the life, in their own words.

The Keepsake Chronicle Talking Points Guideline is easy to follow and allows the storyteller to chronologically list a lifetime of experiences on a personalized outline.

After creating a personalized outline, the storyteller recites his or her story to our professional stenographer, who then creates a magnificent leather-bound Chronicle. Along with the Chronicle, the spoken words of the storyteller are captured on high-quality audiocassette tapes, and if desired, the storyteller's image is captured on DVD. The entire package is contained in a lovely gift box.

Family and friends will cherish this gift of a lifetime for generations.

Simply call Keepsake Chronicle at 988-5476 today to schedule an appointment.

Lee Ann's doors are open!

Lee Ann Conlan, voted Best Local Artist by Cityview readers for three years in a row, recently opened Lee Ann Art Studio and Gallery in the East Village. A self-employed artist, Lee Ann is her own agent and runs her own Web site. Her decision to open a studio and retail location was a bold one. It was fueled by her eagerness to gain more exposure in Des Moines and to be more available to clients and potential clients.

Lee Ann likes the freedom of owning her own business and embraces the challenge of balancing the creative side with the professional side. She is setting an example of entrepreneurship for her two sons. She says: “My sons would also like to sell their artwork at my gallery!” Current projects include commissioned portraits of individuals and families, illustrations and creating what the public wants and needs. Shows of her artwork are known for being innovative, cohesive and varied. Her most recent show in June incorporated live music, film and the artist drawing a live nude model.

Located at 333 East Grand Avenue Loft 104, Lee Ann is hosting a Grand Opening during the Holiday Promenade of Historic East Village on Nov. 21, 5-9 p.m.
